Company Background

Kelly Services was established in 1946 by William Russell Kelly, founder of the temporary staffing industry. Since then, the company has evolved from the widely-recognized "Kelly Girl" brand to become a world leader in workforce management services and human resources solutions.

Services Offered

Today, Kelly offers a comprehensive array of temporary staffing, permanent placement, and outsourcing and consulting services. Kelly employees can be found working in traditional office positions as well as in finance, healthcare, engineering, law, education, accounting, information technology, science, creative services, and light industrial.

Kelly's Outsourcing and Consulting Group (OCG) provides recruitment, human resource management, vendor management, and outplacement services on a global basis.

Geography

As one of the largest global workforce solutions companies, Kelly serves customers throughout the world, including many well-known international businesses, and more than 90 percent of the Fortune 500. Kelly Services is organized around three geographic regions. The Americas, Asia Pacific (APAC), and Europe, the Middle East, and Africa (EMEA) connect Kelly to customers and their unique workforce needs, facilitating the efficient delivery of commercial as well as professional and technical staffing solutions.

Kelly is built on a strong tradition of integrity, quality, and professional excellence and aspires to serve as a trusted business partner to its customers, and to help them realize success. In 2008, Kelly assigned 650,000 employees around the globe.
