republicanos en Kansas City el 1 de Oct. La Federación Nacional de Mujeres Republicanas había invitado a todos los nueve republicanos que se han unido a la contienda hasta ahora para que se dirigieran a la reunión bienal en el Centro de Convenciones de Kansas City, pero sólo Cain, Newt Gingrich y Rick Santorum aceptaron. Ellos hablaron a cerca de 1,200 mujeres que también emitieron su voto en un sondeo presidencial. Cain ganó, derrotando en segundo lugar al gobernador de Texas Rick Perry 48.9 a 14.1%.

Perry era el favorito antes del último debate, pero es criticado como el único candidato que apoya la matrícula dentro del estado para los inmigrantes indocumentados. En el último debate, él contestó los cargos de los candidatos rivales de que "es demasiado suave en inmigración" y "muy débil en el asunto de la soberanía estadounidense". Él señaló que Texas se había unido a la demanda para defender la nueva ley migratoria de Arizona y que desplegó a las tropas de asalto (rangers) de Texas hacia la frontera de 1,254 millas entre Texas y México.

"El hecho del asunto es éste. No hay nadie en este escenario que haya pasado más tiempo trabajando en la seguridad fronteriza que yo", señaló Perry.

También agregó que los opositores a brindar la matrícula estatal no "tienen corazón".

(La ley SB 1070 de Arizona aprobada en el 2010 obligó a la policía a detener gente que sea sospechosa de estar ilegalmente en EE.UU.).

Después del comentario de Cain sobre construir un foso lleno de cocodrilos. Somos Republicanos, un grupo nacional republicano hispano presionó a Cain para que retire de la contienda.

El ex Director Ejecutivo de Godfather's Pizza no ha suavizado su postura sobre la inmigración. Él dice en su sitio de Internet que tomar una postura en el asunto muestra respeto por el imperio de ley más que falta de compasión.

El próximo debate presidencial republicano está establecido para el 11 de Oct. en New Hampshire.

The National Federation of Republican Women had invited all nine Republicans who've joined the race to address the biennial gathering at the Kansas City Convention Center. Only Cain, Newt Gingrich and Rick Santorum accepted.

The candidates spoke to about 1,200 women, who also cast their votes in a presidential straw poll. Cain won, defeating second-place Texas Gov. Rick Perry 48.9 to 14.1 percent. Perry had been the frontrunner entering the last debate, but he's come under fire as the only candidate who supports in-state tuition for undocumented immigrants. During the last debate, he countered charges by rival candidates that he's "too soft on immigration" and "very weak on the issue of American sovereignty." He pointed out that Texas had joined in the lawsuit to defend Arizona's new immigration law and deployed Texas Rangers to the 1,254-mile Texas-Mexican border.

"The fact of the matter is this: There is nobody on this stage who has spent more time working on border security than I have," Perry said.

Perry also said that opponents of providing the in-state tuition don't "have a heart."

(Note: Arizona Senate Bill 1070, passed in 2010, mandates the police detention of people they suspect of being in the United States illegally.)

After Cain's comment about building the alligator-filled moat, the Somos Republicanos, a national Hispanic Republican group, pressed Cain to withdraw from the race.

The former Godfather's Pizza CEO hasn't softened his stance on immigration. He states on his Web site that taking a stand on the issue signals respect for the rule of law, rather than a lack of compassion.

The next Republican presidential debate is set for Oct. 11 in New Hampshire.

Un gol en la lucha por los hispanos afectados por el

Por Omar Bravo

Este año, el grupo empresarial dueño del Sporting Club entró en una colaboración histórica con LIVESTRONG, la organización fundada por el sobreviviente de cáncer y campeón de ciclismo Lance Armstrong, para ayudar a las personas afectadas por el cáncer.

Me dio mucho gusto ver que LIVESTRONG estaba ampliando su alcance a la comunidad hispana en Estados Unidos, en mi país de origen-México-y aquí en la ciudad donde vivo, Kansas City. Pero cuando me enteré por qué esta colaboración era necesaria, me afectó mucho.

El cáncer es la segunda causa principal de muerte entre los hispanos y el índice de cáncer para esta comunidad aumentará en un 142% para el 2030. Y eso es comparado con un índice de cáncer de 45% en todo Estados Unidos. Los hispanos con un nivel socioeconómico menor-tales como ingresos y educación-tienen un índice de supervivencia menor para la mayoría de tipos de cáncer y esto se debe a que tienen menos acceso a tratamientos a tiempo y de alta calidad.

Con el problema del cáncer entre los hispanos aumentando a un índice alarmante, inmediatamente quise participar con LIVESTRONG. Quiero usar el poder como atleta para crear un vínculo hacia los recursos que la gente necesita y revertir esta tendencia. Cuando LIVESTRONG Sporting Park abrió sus puertas en junio, entré a la cancha no sólo como delantero del Sporting Kansas City, sino también como Vozes Global de LIVESTRONG.

En este rol, estoy ayudando a LIVESTRONG a aumentar la sensibilización y el apoyo a los sobrevivientes entre mi comunidad hispana. Hay varias razones por las que debemos mantener la esperanza sobre los avances que se han tenido en la lucha contra el cáncer. El 40% de todos los tipos de cáncer son evitables y un tercio son curables si se detectan temprano y son tratados adecuadamente. Y LIVESTRONG es una de muchas organizaciones trabajando para mejorar el acceso a cuidados de calidad, sobre todo para las poblaciones menos favorecidas.

Por ejemplo, sus servicios de navegación en español ofrecen apoyo gratuito, confidencial y personalizado en línea y por teléfono a cualquier persona afectada por el cáncer. Estos servicios incluyen apoyo emocional, derivación a recursos locales, tales como ayuda con el transporte a sus tratamientos; ayuda para abordar sus preocupaciones financieras, de empleo y seguro; y ensayos clínicos para nuevos tratamientos que se están desarrollando.

LIVESTRONG está invirtiendo en programas sólidos e innovadores de apoyo contra el cáncer en varias organizaciones locales de Kansas City-Cancer Action, Centro de Cáncer de la Universidad de Kansas-Midwest Cancer Alliance y YMCA del área metropolitana de Kansas City-que mejorarán la vida de las personas afectadas por el cáncer en esta región.

De todas las metas en mi vida, el poder ayudar a crear cambios positivos para mi comunidad es la más importante.

Omar Bravo es un futbolista de talla mundial y miembro del equipo Sporting Kansas City de 2011. LIVESTRONG ofrece servicios gratuitos y confidenciales en español por Internet en www.LIVESTRONG.org/espanol.org y por teléfono llamando al (855) 220-7777.

Celebrando el Mes de la Herencia Hispana

Dos Mundos

1981-2011

Celebrating the Hispanic Heritage Month

Es posible tener una muestra de las culturas de gran parte del mundo, incluyendo aquellos de Norteamérica sin tener que viajar.

El área de Kansas City estuvo alguna vez poblada por nativos americanos que representaban unas 10 tribus. En la posición que tenemos de cruce de caminos en el país, nuestra región fue por siglos un imán y un paso intermedio de inmigrantes de todo el mundo. Actualmente, los descendientes de esos nativos e inmigrantes celebran sus herencias y contribuciones respectivas durante todo el año mediante programas y eventos especiales continuos.

En el mes de mayo, los hispanos conmemoramos el 5 mayo con celebraciones en ambos estados. La celebración anual incluyó un desfile, exposiciones, presentaciones de arte, ceremonias sagradas y comidas de países latinos.

Este año, los irlandeses tuvieron su gran espectáculo anual durante el fin de semana del Día del Trabajo en Crown Center. El Kansas City el Festival Irlandés exploró la historia y cultura irlandesa mediante talleres, entretenimiento y gastronomía. El siguiente fin de semana, los católicos ortodoxos griegos tuvieron su 50º Festival Griego en la Promoción de la Iglesia en Kansas City, Mo. El festival de tres días celebró la herencia, comidas, artesanías y costumbres griegas.

El 24 septiembre fue el Festival Japonés de Kansas City celebrado en el Colegio Comunitario del condado Johnson (Kansas) con talleres, demostraciones, exposiciones de refrigerios, arte, deportes e historia japonesa. Durante el fin de semana del 30 de Sep. al 2 de octubre, el Crown Center tuvo su Granma y Oktoberfest. La celebración alemana de cocina y cultural bávara inspirada por el famoso festival internacional de Alemania Oktoberfest con 201 años de antigüedad.

El 15 octubre, el Consejo indio-americano y otros presentaron su primera celebración honrando las tribus regionales y sus historias y costumbres. El Harvest Moon American Indian Festival se realizará en la esquina de la calle 31 y la Avenida Troost en Kansas City, Mo.

Hay mucho más, incluyendo la celebración reconocida a nivel regional de nuestra identidad multicultural local. El Festival del Enraizamiento. Emiso con 32 años de antigüedad que se lleva a cabo cada mes de agosto en el parque Swope, presenta artesanías, entretenimientos y comidas de 65 países.

Estas actividades nos enriquecen como comunidad y nos hacen evolucionar como individuos, profundizando nuestro conocimiento y comprensión de las culturas y ayudando a aumentar el mutuo respeto y apreciación.

Celebrando y probando los componentes diversos que conforman nuestra herencia colectiva nos ayuda a entendernos como una sociedad y distinguimos entre unos y otros. Esto hace el pasado relevante y da significado y una base para el presente en el cual formamos el futuro.

Sembrar los fundamentos en los niños en su herencia cultural les da estabilidad y seguridad, apuntala la conciencia de uno mismo y ayuda a definir la identidad y establecer individualidad. Identificar y ser capaz de utilizar las raíces culturales de uno ofrece dirección, apoyo y esperanza.

Desafortunadamente, con mucha frecuencia hay una tendencia a deshacerse de la tradición, negar la herencia histórica y cortar los enlaces culturales. Desistamos personas igualar los ritos étnicos a la cultura con la ingenuidad. Ellos se separan del pasado y crían a sus hijos en las culturas unicolores sin importar el presente. Estas prácticas de familia mal informadas están despojando de manera grave a sus hijos de reclamar la pertenencia hacia algo más grandioso que ellos mismos.

Se espera que el mes de herencia hispana que está a punto de cerrar el 15 octubre, vuelva a encender la conciencia y apreciación en los hispanos que se han desvinculados de nuestro orgullo, la historia heterogénea y la herencia. Nuestros pasados diversos en tierras nativas son ricos y admirables así como son nuestras contribuciones hacia lo que es grandioso y noble sobre nuestro Estados Unidos.

Nuestras culturas respectivas han enriquecido cada faceta de esta fabulosa nación. Eso es lo que estamos conmemorando, y le pertenece a cada hispano de esta comunidad.
